

Define the word identity.

In your world, what identity and image messages are most powerful? What factors most assess people's worth in your culture?

When you think about image and identity, what makes you feel discontent?

In a few words, how would you define yourself? How would others define you? How are you defined in your relationship to God? Why are these answers different?

How would living every day in the reality of being "forever the lion cub" change the way you relate to God and the way you live your life?

Hye Won Hye "that which does not burn"--symbol of imperishability and endurance. This symbol gets its meaning from traditional priests that were able to walk on fire without burning their feet, an inspiration to others to endure and overcome difficulties.
